Eight vie for Junior Fair King and Queen titles

By Evelyn Long
for the Morrow County Sentinel

The 2015 Morrow County Junior Fair King and Queen will be crowned during ceremonies to be held in the Junior Fair Youth Arena at 6:30 pm Tuesday, September 1, the second day of the annual Morrow County Fair.

Candidates include five boys and three girls.

LAUREN HALL, daughter of John and Dedra Hall, is a senior at Cardington-Lincoln High School where she is active with the FFA chapter, the Spanish Club, the Math Competition Team and the Prom Committee. She belongs to the Girl Scouts, is a member of the Junior Fair Board and has served as a camp counselor. A member of the Family 4-Her's Club, she is showing cattle and taking a scrap booking project to the fair this year.

MAGGIE LOGAN, is the daughter of Rob and Julie Logan. She is a junior at Northmor High School and belongs the Northmor FFA. She is a member of the Country Crossroads 4-H Club. Her activities include assisting the American Legion with placement of flags on graves. She is active with her church youth group and other church departments including serving as a greeter, acolyte, Bible School helper, etc. Maggie is showing hogs, feeder calves and rabbits at the fair this year.

REANNA SWAIN, daughter of Billie Swain, is a senior at Mount Gilead High School where she belongs to the In the Know Team and runs on the Cross Country team. She is a student instructor with the Academy of Rising Stars and is active with the Morrow Little Theater. A member of the 4 All 4-H Club, Reanna is showing rabbits, and taking Creative Writing and Money Management projects to the fair.

COLLIN BERG, the son of Peter and Cathy Berg, is a senior at Northmor High School where he is a class officer, a member of the National Honor Society and the Science Club. He is on the football, basketball and track teams. Collin is also a 4-H Camp Counselor and belongs to the Johnsville Jolly Farmers and Farmerettes 4-H Club and is showing dairy cattle at the fair.

JOSH CAUDILL is a senior at Northmor High School where is on the track team and belongs to the Northmor FFA Chapter. The son of Kevin and Jill Caudill, Kevin belongs to the Johnsville Jolly Farmers and Farmerettes 4-H Club and is showing dairy cattle. He would have had a poultry project if they had been allowed to show.

ZACH PARROTT, son of Ken and Patty Parrott, is a junior at Northmor High School where he plays basketball, is in the show choir and performs with the school musicals. A member of the Farmers and Charmers 4-H Club, Zach is also on the Junior Fair Board and is showing sheep at the fair.

LUCAS STANDLEY II is the son of Luke Standley and a senior at Gilead Christian School where he is class treasurer, runs Cross Country, track and is involved with Martial Arts. He is also a Buckeye Boys State delegate and is active with his church youth group. Lucas belongs to the Showing and Growing 4-H Club and is showing sheep and the Keeping Fit project.

ADAM ZEGER, son of Dan and Jaime Zeger, is a senior at Northmor High School where he plays football, and is involved with Power Lifting. He is active with his church youth group. A member of the Junior Fair Board, Adam is showing hogs and two different Self-Determined projects.

Emceeing the ceremony this year will be the 2014 Junior Fair King and Queen Taylor Clark and Derek Barker who will also crown the new king and queen.

A dinner, hosted by Clark and Barker, will be served to fair royalty from around the state at 5:30 pm in the Youth Arena.

Enjoy all the highlights of Morrow County Fair

By Evelyn Long
for the Morrow County Sentinel

The 165th Morrow County Fair will open Monday, August 31, for an eight-day run through Labor Day, September 7.

The days will be packed with a variety of attractions for everyone of all ages.

Fair Board President Brandon Strain said several improvements have been made during the past year. A new roof has been placed on the west (race) horse barn and four new grandstand units have been installed, two at the east end of the current stands and two in the pit.

There is also a new set of bleachers at the horse arena.

New grandstand attraction will be KOI Truck Drag Racing on Sunday and appearing for the first time on the small stage will be Steel Creek, a Marion band.

In addition to the handicap parking area from Gate B, additional handicap parking will be available in the area between the youth building and the rabbit building accessible from Gate C or the back gate. Gate A is for walk ins only.

Admission prices remain the same, $6 daily for those over six years of age. Children six and under, parking and grandstand are free. There is no admission charge on the first day of the fair.

Passes for those aged 16 and over are $25 and the youth tickets (7-15) are $15. Pit passes to the infield (Gate B) are $6 for Tuesday through Sunday and $10 for Monday, September 7. Midway rides are not included with any pass or daily admission and may be purchased from Otterbacher Amusements at the midway. The midway will not be open on the first day of the fair. Rides will close daily from 5 to 6 pm and will operate on Monday, September 7 from noon to 4 pm.

Senior Citizens will be honored on Tuesday, September 1, when all those age 62 and over will be admitted free from 7 am to 4 pm and on Sunday, Veterans Day will be observed with all veterans with proper military ID will be admitted from 7 am to 4 pm They will be honored during a special program presented at noon at the grandstand.

Sponsors of the Day include Morrow County Commissioners on Monday, August 31; Discount Drug Mart, Tuesday; Blackstone Insurance Agency, Inc, Wednesday; Ramco Rental, Inc. Thursday; Touchstone Energy Day by Consolidated Electric, Friday; Burkhart Farm Center, Inc. Saturday; Poet Bio Fuel Refining, Sunday and Cardington Yutaka, Monday, September 7.

Harness Racing will be run Monday and Tuesday beginning at 6 pm.

The Morrow County Historical Society will once again host the Log Cabin. The Draft Horse and Llama area will be busy with judging and contests.

Entertainment will be continuous from the small stage and on Sunday morning a church service will be held in the youth building. Because there will be no poultry displayed this year, that building will house rabbits.

The Junior Fair calendar is also full, highlighted by the crowning of a new king and queen on Tuesday. Junior fair awards and the county bands will be presented following the Veterans program Sunday at the grandstand. A parade, beginning at 2:15 pm will wrap up these events.

The Junior Fair horse arena will be busy with shows, contests and the crowning of the new king and queen on Wednesday at 9 am.

Other board officers are Tim Weiler, vice president; Mary Weiler, secretary and treasurer and Julie Logan is the junior fair coordinator.
